

VP of Land-Marcellus Project
Location: Moon Township, PA

The VP Land will be responsible for all land-related matters for the company

Supervision, training and development of the company Marcellus land department including title, lease acquisition, project management, business development, and lease administration

Managing Marcellus leasehold portfolio including expiring leases, rentals and commitment

Manage acquisitions, joint ventures, and land swap transactions involving the Marcellus project

Coordination of and accountability for all land-related functions relating to drilling programs

Member of senior level management involved in strategic planning and decision making

Review business process for continuous improvement in procedures through optimum utilization of systems and personnel. Provide weekly/monthly reports as determined by management

QUALIFICATIONS

- BS in Energy Management, Land Management, or related field
- 15 years experience in oil and gas industry
- An equivalent combination of education and experience will be considered

Interested candidates may email their resume to dvazzana@atlasenergy.com www.atlasenergy.com