

Daniel T O'Connor
40 Rodgers Ave, Pittsburgh, PA 15205
(412)921-8983

9/82

U.S. Navy. 12 week machine mate school. stationed on USS Waddel, stationed in San Diego. Duties were all phases of steam propulsion engineering. Served in Persian Gulf. Qualified for Eng, Messenger, Engine room throttles, eng. room lower and upper levels man. Was awarded meritorious unit commendation medal, sea service deployment medal, and Battle-E Ribbon. Discharged in 1985.

9/85

Worked for Mathews Marble Manf. Co. Responsibilities included making sinks, tubs, countertops, and shower kits out of cultured marble products.

87-88

Responsibilities included all shipping and receiving and warehouse duties. Left company to make more money.

9/88

O.K. Grocery Co.

Major distribution warehouse. Responsibilities included picking and selecting product for distribution to area grocery stores. Left co. to join Ball

2/90

Ball Metal corp. A leading company in global packaging.

From 2/90 - 2/95

Responsibility included all baked metal product leaving oven. Pack, secure and transport via forklift.

2/95-2000

Forklift operator of lift trucks capable of 25,000 lbs lift. OSHA qualified and Ball certified. responsible for loading and unloading front and rear production lines safely and efficiently.

2000 - 2008

Shipping and Receiving. Responsibilities included staging, wrapping, transporting loads of tin plated steel to various bays and aisles. Responsibilities also included all in and out bound freight, and load securement, all forklift work.

2008 to Present

Coil line operator, High speed sheering machine.

Responsibilities include cutting tin plated coils into sheets at a plus or minus .010 tolerance.